Junior Water Polo Teams Have an Opportunity to Mix it with the World's Best

Tom Hoad Cup X 27 - 31 December 2012, Fremantle Western Australia

An open invitation is extended to all Australian Club and International teams to compete in the 2012 Tom Hoad Cup Junior International Water Polo Tournament.

The Tom Hoad Cup is an annual International Water Polo Tournament involving the world's best players and club teams.

This year the Junior International Tournament for Girls and Boys born in 1995 and 1997 will be held in conjunction with the primary tournament at the same time and venue.

The Melville Water Polo Club also invites all teams participating in the Born 96 2012 Australian National Championships to the Tom Hoad Cup Junior International Tournament.

Come, watch, play and train with the best players in the world - the Tom Hoad Cup is a true celebration of International Water Polo.

The Tom Hoad Cup Junior International Tournament has previously attracted teams from Hungary, Spain, Singapore, France and New Zealand, and associated junior teams from Australian National League Clubs.

The Melville Water Polo Club may be able to assist with accommodation and ground transport.
